Greg Jockims

Head Coach
8th Year at Saskatchewan
Saskatchewan, 1988

Greg Jockims is in his eighth season as head coach of the Huskies. Jockims' connection with the Huskies goes all the way back to 1983, when he began his career as a player with the Dogs.

Since taking over as head coach in the summer of 1998, Jockims has brought "Huskie Pride" to the basketball program at the University of Saskatchewan. The four seasons prior to his arrival, the Dogs posted a 13-102 overall record, including only seven wins in Canada West Conference play. As a former Huskie player during the glory days of the 1980's, and already a successful coach on the national stage, Jockims was the perfect candidate for the job.

Prior to coming to Saskatchewan, Jockims spent four seasons in his first head coaching job at the University College of Cape Breton (1994-98) in Sydney, Nova Scotia. He didn't waste any time establishing himself as a top CIS head coach. That first year, he led the team to a 20-10 overall record, including the AUAA Championship and a third place finish at Nationals. After the Capers finished conference play in fourth place, they won three straight playoff games to claim the 1994-95 conference championship.

Seeded eighth for Nationals, Cape Breton upset No.1-seed Brandon 77-73 before losing to fourth seed Alberta 88-84 in the semi-final.

During Jockims' four years in Sydney, the Capers made the AUAA playoffs three out of four seasons, posting a 5-3 record in the postseason. His overall record in four seasons at the Cape was 58-59 (.496). One of the players on his first team was John Ryan, who was selected as an Honourable Mention All-Canadian that season. Ryan is now the athletic director at Cape Breton.

The Huskies' prospects could only get better with Jockims' enthusiasm, commitment to excellence and tough mentality kick-starting the rebuilding process.

Knowing that the turn around would be a long-term project, the Huskies posted a disappointing 3-28 mark in his first year at the helm. But after a full off-season to recruit, the fortunes of the Dogs began to change.

The next year, the Huskies would post a 14-14 record, their best showing since the early 1990's. They made the playoffs for the first time since 1993-94, losing in the Central Division Semi-Final to Lethbridge. James Kenyon was named conference and National Freshman of the Year, the first Huskie ever to win the award. Jody Glines and Kenyon were named second team all-conference. The Dogs had made the trip back to respectability in only two years.

The 2000-01 season would be a slight step back for the Dogs, as they missed the playoffs after posting a 12-17 overall record, with an 8-14 mark in conference play. Senior Ryan Leier was named second team all-conference.

The return of Kenyon in 2001-02 after a year off, as well as a solid recruiting class, sparked the Dogs to their best season yet under Jockims. A 14-21 overall record included a .500 record in the conference for the second time in three years, as well as the Huskies first playoff series victory in almost ten years. The Dogs beat Lethbridge two games to one in the Central Division Semi-Final, before bowing out the next weekend to Alberta, the eventual National Champions. Matt Greenberg was named to the conference All-Freshman team, while Kenyon and senior forward Calvin Palmer were named second team all-conference.

The next two seasons saw the Huskies finish with disappointing records as they laid the foundation for future success. In 2002-03 the Dogs finished 12-19, missing the playoffs by one game. But a strong recruiting class would help excite the Huskie faithful.

Fielding the youngest team in the nation with seven freshman, the 2003-04 Huskies finished 8-12 in conference play. The Dogs travelled to Alberta for the division semi-final, which they lost two games to none. Andrew Spagrud was named National Freshman of the Year.

In 2004-05, the Huskies won the Central Division regular season title and finished with an overall record of 25-13. The 25 wins in a season was the third most in school history. The season came to an unfortunate end when the Huskies dropped Game 3 of the Central Final to Alberta. Spagrud became the first Huskie to be named All-Canadian since Jockims' return.

In 2005-06 the Huskies battled through numerous injuries to clinch their second straight Central regular season title. But this time they finished the job as they swept Alberta in the Central Final. After losing 73-72 at UBC in the conference semi-final, the Dogs beat Regina to earn their first trip to Nationals in 18 years.

Jockims earned his 100th victory with the Huskies on November 19, 2005 as they defeated Lethbridge 95-67.

Coaching Career

1998-Present: Head Coach
University of Saskatchewan

1994-1998: Head Coach

Institute in Victoria in 1992. He has coached numerous Saskatchewan Provincial Teams, as well as the Junior Huskies Club since the summer of 2000. He was also an assistant for Canadian National "B" Team which represented the country at the Jones Cup in Taiwan in 1995. His former coach with the Huskies, the late Guy Vetrie, was the head coach of that team.

Jockims played his high school basketball for three years at Mount Royal Collegiate in Saskatoon for the legendary Nick Patola. As a senior he helped the Mustangs win the City Championship, and finish second at Provincials. He led the team in scoring with 22 points per game. After graduating from Mount Royal in June of 1983, Jockims choose to attend and play basketball at the University of Saskatchewan for Vetrie.

The Huskies reached the National Finals in Halifax twice during Jockims five seasons. In 1986 they finished fourth, and in 1988 they finished in fifth place. He also played for Team Saskatchewan in the summers of 1987 and 1988. They earned a silver at the National Championships in 1987 and took home the gold medal at the 1988 Western Canada Summer Games.

Jockims, 40, was born in Swift Current, Saskatchewan. He is proudly supported at home by his wife Shana. They are the parents of three children. Daughter Kaitlin Lorraine, 4, and son Rylan James, 3, were joined by brother Braedan Allan in May of 2005. They can usually be seen cheering on the Huskies at all their home games. In his free time he likes to spend time with his family, read, and watch his beloved Los Angeles Lakers.

Though the program has reached the contender stage under Jockims, there is still work to be done to turn it into a champion. The team is now filled with committed, hard-working players who have had a taste of postseason success. As they strive for more, their continued hard work (both in and out of season), along with that of the coaching staff is sure to carry them to a Canada West title in the near future.

Jockims' commitment to excellence can also be seen off the court as well. He graduated in 1988 from the University of Saskatchewan with a Bachelor of Science (Kinesiology) degree. In 1992, he earned a Master's of Education degree from the University of Victoria. This attitude of high academic achievement can also be seen in his players. During the 2001-02 academic year, eight of his players were named to the Huskie Athletics All-Academic Team.

In the past seven years at Saskatchewan, players have earned Academic All-Canadian honours 13 times.

Before his head coaching days, Jockims was an assistant at the Univeristy of Saskatchewan (1989-1991) and the University of Victoria (1992-94). He is an NCCP Level IV certified coach, having graduated from the National Coaching

ASSISTANT COACHES

Nathan Schellenberg

Assistant Coach
4th Year
Regina, SK

Nathan Schellenberg is in his fourth season as an assistant with the Huskies. He joined the Huskies coaching staff in March of 2002. His connections to the Huskies go back to the mid-90's when he was a player. Schellenberg also started for head coach Greg Jockims on the 1993 Saskatchewan Juvenile (17 & Under) Provincial team. Schellenberg works primarily with the Huskie forwards. In addition to his on-floor work with the players, his coaching responsibilities include recruiting, opponent scouting and coaching at the Huskies summer basketball camps. He is also responsible for designing and maintaining the Huskies team website that was launched in January 2003.

During the summer of 2003, Schellenberg became head coach of the 17 & Under Junior Huskies Club team. Since becoming head coach, the team has compiled an impressive 47-17 overall record over the last three years. In that time the Jr. Huskies have won three tournaments and appeared in the final of four others. So far nine players from the program have gone on to play post-secondary basketball in that time period.

The team finished that first summer schedule with a 16-5 overall record. In August of that same year, Schellenberg spent a week coaching at the University of Missouri basketball camp in Columbia, Missouri.

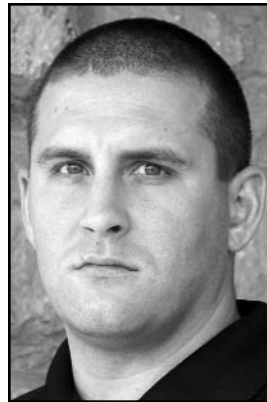

In 2004 the team finished with an 18-6 overall record, highlighted by a fifth place finish in their division at the Reebok Big Time tournament in Las Vegas, the best placing ever by a Canadian team. The Jr. Huskies had a 4-3 record in Vegas, defeating teams from Los Angeles, Northern California, Michigan and Houston before losing their quarter-final game by one point to the Arkansas Hawks.

Prior to joining the Dogs, Schellenberg spent three years coaching with the junior boys team at his alma mater, Luther College High School in Regina. After going through a tough first season, the Lions saw much more success the next two seasons winning numerous tournaments. He left the team as one of the top three ranked teams in the city. Before coaching at Luther, where he was also Assistant Dean in the boys dorm, he spent the 1999 season as the head coach at Ruth Pawson Elementary in Regina. He also spent four years (1999-2002) as a coach in Basketball Saskatchewan Inc.'s spring programs.

Schellenberg played his high school basketball at Luther in Regina. He played three years on the senior team for former Huskie player Paul Humbert, winning three West Division titles. The Lions were crowned city champions in 1992, when they also finished second in the Provincial Championships. In 1993 they were city-finalists. As a senior he was named a team captain and MVP, when he averaged a team-high 20.6 ppg along with 7.0 rpg and 6.8 apg. Schellenberg was an RIBL West Division All-Star as a senior.

An outstanding football player as well, Schellenberg once scored six touchdowns in a playoff game. He was a two-time city All-Star receiver in football, helping the Lions win the 1992 City and Provincial 3A Championships. After graduating in 1994, he decided to play football at Idaho State University. After redshirting at ISU, he transferred to Saskatchewan in the summer of 1995 because of a chance to play both football and basketball for the Huskies. Schellenberg joined the basketball team immediately after the 1995 football season was over, earning a spot in the forward rotation during the second half of the season. Deciding not to play basketball in order to concentrate on training for football the next year, he earned a ring as the Huskies won the 1996 National Championship.

Schellenberg, who was born in Regina, is 30 years old and is working towards finishing his Bachelor's degree. A huge Detroit Lions fan for the past fifteen years, he also enjoys reading the latest books from John Feinstein as well as playing Playstation 2 video games when he finds the time.

Brett Hoffman

Assistant Coach
3rd Year
Saskatoon, SK

Brett Hoffman is in his third season as an assistant with the Huskies. He joined the Huskies coaching staff in August of 2003. Hoffman works primarily with the Huskie guards in practice. In addition to his on-floor work with the players, his coaching responsibilities include recruiting, some opponent scouting and coaching at the Huskies summer basketball camps.

Hoffman is also the head coach of the junior boys team at Bishop James Mahoney High School in Saskatoon. This year was his first with the school, and he led the Saints to the 2005-06 City Championship, defeating Mount Royal 62-43 in the final. The Saints finished the regular season in first place (10-1), and had an overall record of 17-4.

Since the summer of 2003 Hoffman has been a head coach with the Junior Huskies Club program. In the past three years, Hoffman has led his Jr. Huskie squads to a 45-13 overall record and five tournament titles.

During that first summer, Hoffman was head coach of the 15 & Under Junior Huskies team. The squad finished their summer schedule with a 15-4 overall record, won two tournaments, and made the final of another.

In the spring of 2004, the Junior Huskies established a 16 & Under squad, which Hoffman has now coached the past two summers. The team went 14-5 overall, claiming two tournament championships along the way.

In 2005, he led the Jr. Huskies to a 16-4 overall record. They won one tournament title and made appearances in the final of two others.

Prior to joining the Dogs, Hoffman spent three years as an assistant coach with the senior boys team at St. Joseph High School in Saskatoon. While there he helped the Guardians to a 28-11 conference record over three years, and a second place finish in the city in 2000-01. The Guardians also finished third at the Provincial Championships that same season. While at St. Joe's he coached current Huskies Mark Thompson and Mark Breker.

Before moving to St. Joseph he spent three seasons as an assistant with the junior boys team at his alma mater, Aden Bowman Collegiate in Saskatoon. The Bears won the 1998-99 City Championship. He also spent time as a coach in Basketball Saskatchewan Inc.'s spring programs. Hoffman is an NCCP Level III Certified coach.

Hoffman played his high school basketball at Aden Bowman. He played two years on the senior team for former Huskie players John Cleland and Dan Dewar. The Bears were crowned City and Provincial Champions in 1993. In 1994 they finished second in the city.

After graduating in 1994 he attended the University of Saskatchewan. While at Saskatchewan he was a member of the Huskie track and field team (1999-2000) as a pole vaulter. Hoffman earned a degree in Kinesiology in 2000 (B.Sc.Kin), and a year later an education degree (B.Ed).

Hoffman, who was born in Saskatoon, is 29 years old and is working as a teacher for the Saskatoon Catholic School Board. An avid Minnesota Vikings fan, in his spare time he can usually be seen on the links fulfilling his golf addiction.
